

I forgot to pray for you

I forgot to pray with you, I had in you my midst, yet I forgot to pray with you.

We fellowshiped for more than an hour, and I didn't pray for you.

We shared ideas and opinions, but I neglected to pray for my friend.

I let you leave my presence, and travel without praying for your safe journey.

I'm sorry, for not praying with you, with me.

But I prayed for you, last night.
