

You Rescued Me

Just in time, you rescued me. I was about to give up on Love, but then you came in

You showed that I could Love again, you showed me how to be in love once more

Thank you for rescuing me,

Thank you for bringing me back to me

And now the beautiful Man that I was, I will be again

Baby, I thought Love for me was over

But you have showed me that there is so much Love still within me, and to give only to you my Darling

Because of your Love I am whole again

Because of your affection I am alive again

Because of the way you smell I am excited for you
